Panel Discussion: Miller and Carroll v New Zealand

In this landmark decision, released April 2018, the UN Human Rights Committee found several violations of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights arising from deficiencies in New Zealand's system of preventive detention. Joining us to discuss the decision and its implications are:

- Professor Claudia Geiringer, Victoria University of Wellington (Chair)
- Dr Tony Ellis, Blackstone Chambers
- Ben Keith, Thorndon Chambers
- Dr Yvette Tinsley, Victoria University of Wellington

This event is free to the public and is CPD compatible (one hour).
